Magpies return

WYCOMBE Wanderers continue their Premier Midweek Floodlight League Section A programme on Monday night with a return visit to Maidenhead United at York Road. The match at Loakes Park in October ended in a 2-2 draw with Tony Horseman and Mick Chatterton scoring all four goals between them.

United, however, have now lost the services of Chatterton, who recently signed for Enfield. Dave Kemp, their other top marksman, also left to join Slough Town.

The Maidenhead side is likely to include several former Marlow players, who joined the club with manager Mike Hall last season. Ron Scary, Pete Johnson, Dave Woolley and Vince Faulkner all played for Marlow. Faulkner also spent several seasons at Loakes Park as a utility man. He nows plays as centre-half for the Magpies.

LATEST TABLE

WITH Hendon dropping a valuable point in the 1-1 draw at St. Albans on Wednesday, they now have three games and a possible three points in hand over leaders Wycombe Wanderers.
